

IGNATIAN APPETIZERS: Towards the Full Banquet.

“The sidewalks are littered with postcards from God”, wrote Walt Whitman. During this weekend we will explore some basic aspects of Ignatian Spirituality, elements which we’re calling “ignatian appetizers”. Our hope is that together we will unwrap a few themes that can stretch our minds, hearts and souls in such a way that we become free and detached enough to allow ourselves to be found by God in all moments and aspects of our lives.

Philip, a jesuit priest, is an internationally known retreat master and public speaker. He is a native of Malta, an artist at heart and madly in love with all things beautiful and soulful: music, painting, sculpture, photography, film, theatre, poetry, good company, good food, good wine and more.

He strongly believes that beauty is a uniquely wonderful entry into the mystery of the God “whose centre is everywhere and whose circumference is nowhere.” God can indeed be sensed and experienced in all things if we have ears to hear and eyes to see, and the patience to have a long, loving look at the real that surrounds us.
