

HEROIC LIVING

an afternoon with Chris Lowney

Saturday 7th September 1.30pm - 4pm

Chris Lowney, a former Jesuit, became a managing director of JP Morgan, eventually holding senior positions in New York, Tokyo, Singapore, and in London.

Lowney's formation as a Jesuit provided significant grounding and insight, which shaped his leadership in this investment banking arena. Lowney now brings these insights, inspiring us all to live heroically.

As we gather to listen to Chris' insights, he will inspire us; sharing strategies for a "...life that's better than the life you've imagined" by creating a new strategy for a new time, discovering your mighty purpose, choosing wisely and making every day matter.

Bookings essential. Cost $50 (incl. afternoon tea)

Venue: Champion Centre of Ignatian Spirituality
99 Studley Park Road, Kew VIC 3101 (Enter via Hodgson St)

Bookings: Ph: +61-3-9854-8110

Email: secretary@campion.asn.au

Web: www.campion.asn.au